HUFF 'N PUFF COLORING CONTEST!

The Children's Museum of Walla Walla is excited to introduce our newest friends: the Three Little Pigs! They are the centerpiece of our developing exhibit- the Pacific Power Huff N' Puff House. The Three Little Pigs will be helping us teach our visitors young and young at heart, about sustainable living!

You can be a part of our new exhibit today by entering our coloring contest! The picture of a tree living inside of a light bulb captures the idea that we use environmental resources to power our lives, and we need to practice sustainable living to put these resources to good use!

The winner of our coloring contest will get their finished coloring printed on our new "Going Green" t-shirts and will receive a free t-shirt for their help! Colorings will be accepted until April 30th, 2010.

SUPPORTING CMWW HAS NEVER BEEN EASIER!

CMWW now has a new online store where you can purchase our fundraising items, museum memberships, and even "Donations." Check out our new e-commerce site and buy your "Convict Cookbook," a "Family Membership" or even purchase a "Donation" with your Paypal account!

<http://www.freewebstore.org/cmww>

100% of these sale items directly benefit CMWW. Because we are a non-profit organization, we rely heavily on grants, donations, and these fundraising items to keep our doors open. Please support our museum and in-turn, our community by making a donation or by purchasing some of our fundraising items! We deeply appreciate all the support our community has given us; because of these donations we continue to strive to benefit every family with young children in our community.
