PACIFIC POWER HUFF 'N PUFF EXHIBIT GRAND OPENING DAY!

We will be having a FREE Day on Wednesday, May 26th from 12 - 5pm. for our Grand Opening of the new Pacific Power Huff 'n Puff Exhibit. Refreshments will be served.

This exhibit is inspired by the 'Three Little Pigs' nursery rhyme and will teach kids and their significant adults about renewable energy. The exhibit includes touch screen computers with games about renewable energy, bicycles the kids can pedal to turn on a light bulb, a station with recycled material for kids to make a craft, resource center with information on sustainability, solar water fountain and a three little pigs station that teaches kids about insulation.

Thank you Pacific Power for choosing the Children's Museum for your Centennial Project for Walla Walla County!
